Name: _____

Friendship

1

Be a playground buddy for someone who looks lonely.

2

Invite a different classmate to join your game each day for a week

3

Make a friendship card for someone who has been kind to you

4

Keep a friendship diary - draw or write about kind things you've done

Compassion

1

Write a thank you note to someone who helps you at school

2

Keep a shared area tidy without being asked to 3

Make a donation box with your family for a local charity

4

Be a kindness spotter - notice when someone feels sad and do something small to help them feel better

Trust

Be a reliable helper – choose a classroom job and stick with it for at least a week

1

Tell the truth, even when it's difficult – keep a record of times you made the right choice

2

Be a Trustworthy Partner - Work with a partner kindly and fairly – don't cheat or take over (Then ask your partner how you could improve for next time!)

3

Show you can keep a promise - Make a small promise (like helping tidy or walking quietly) and stick to it for two weeks

4

Forgiveness

Make stars out of paper and write or draw one way on each star you've forgiven someone or said sorry yourself. Hang your stars in the Reflection area to help others learn how to let go and shine bright.

1

Draw and write about a time you made a mistake and someone forgave you.

2

Draw or write a simple story where a character makes a mistake, says sorry, and is forgiven.

3

Draw or trace your foot. On oneside, write one mistake you've made that you want to leave behind. On the other side, write a new step you will take moving forward.

4

Courage

Draw a “Courage Brain” - showing what your brain tells you when you're scared but do something brave anyway

1

Try three new foods and write or draw what they looked like, how they tasted, and how you felt being brave enough to try them.

2

Role-play a Bible story where someone shows courage.

3

Create a picture of someone doing something brave – like helping someone, standing up for someone, or trying something new

4

Perseverance

Spend time learning a new skill that you have always found hard outside of school

1

Persevere at reading a chapter (longer) book at home with an adult

2

Choose one thing at school you find tricky (like handwriting, tying laces, or times tables) and practise it a little every day for a week.

3

Design a poster with pictures or words to remind others not to give up. Put it up in the classroom.
